Happy New Year!

2022 Inaugural Award Gala Review

On December 8, 2022, members of CAI Michigan gathered at the Colony Club in Detroit, Michigan to attend the Inaugural Awards Gala. Everyone was dressed as the cat's meow at the Gatsby-themed event to celebrate excellence in the community association industry. Attendees enjoyed a Detroit-style strolling dinner menu, captured memories in the photobooth and danced the night away as the band roared from the mezzanine.

A video was shared commemorating The Founding Fathers of the Michigan Chapter. Ron Duprey, Dan Herriman, Bill McShane, Joe West, Jeff Gourlie, Tom Dawson, and Linda Strussine all shared their stories on the creation of the chapter and its importance in the industry.

Also, through this event, CAI Michigan was dedicated to raising money to give back to the community through charity. They selected the Rhonda Walker Foundation to receive the contributions which totaled more than $5,000.00. Representatives from the charity were presented a check and took time to speak regarding their role in empowering inner-city teen girls towards becoming strong, future leaders of their communities.

Congratulations to Curt Norrod for winning the raffle sponsored by U&S Companies. Enjoy your suite seats for the Detroit Red Wings!

In conclusion, it was a wonderful event, enjoyed by all that attended, and the chapter cannot wait to expand on the event for this year. Special thanks to the social committee and our business partners for making it a night to remember!
